

Virginia Society of the American Institute of Architects
Annual Meeting of the Membership
November 6, 2014
Greater Richmond Convention Center
Minutes of the Meeting

The annual meeting of the membership of the Virginia Society of the American Institute of Architects was called to order by President Jack Davis, FAIA, at 1:00 pm.

Minutes of the meeting of November 7, 2013, were approved as prepared.

President Davis reported on the activities and accomplishments of the Virginia Society AIA over the past year.

President-elect Valerie Hassett, FAIA made remarks recognizing the contributions of retiring Executive Vice President/CEO John Braymer, Hon. AIA. She announced the creation of a leadership group recognizing past presidents named The John W. Braymer Leadership Circle.

Treasurer Nicholas E. Vlattas, AIA, reported on the financial status of the Society with several financial reports.

President Davis placed in nomination the following members for the offices indicated:

R. Corey Clayborne, AIA — Vice President, Professional Excellence
William T. Brown, AIA — Vice President, Government Advocacy
Robert V. Reis, AIA — Vice President, Professional Communications and Outreach
S. Jeanne LeFever, AIA — Treasurer
Nicholas Vlattas, AIA — First Vice President/President Elect
Eric Keplinger, AIA — Secretary

The president called for nominations from the floor and, hearing none, accepted a motion for election by acclamation. The motion carried.

Executive Vice President/CEO John Braymer, Hon. AIA, provided a management report and remarks about his tenure.

President Davis recognized the following members as recipients of the following awards:

William C. Noland Medal – M. Kirk Train, FAIA
Award for Distinguished Achievement – Lori Garrett, AIA
Robert Beach, AIA

Virginia Society Prize for Design Research and Scholarship
Michael Ermann for Architectural Acoustics Illustrated

Regional Director Paula Loomis, FAIA, reported on key AIA issues.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:15 p.m.

Eric Keplinger, AIA
Secretary