

AIA Virginia Partners in Design

AIA Virginia partners in a variety of ways with companies whose products and services support the work of Virginia architects. This partnership will provide you the competitive edge by improving your visibility and credibility among architects and designers who are loyal to those who support the profession. Whether you prefer to focus on education, networking, the industry, or special events, the AIA Virginia team can offer a wide range of customized sponsorship packages that maximize your exposure, increase business and cater to your strategic marketing plans.

Design Awards

AIA Virginia's Awards for Excellence in Architecture recognize outstanding design, built and unbuilt, from the past eight years. Also known as the Design Awards, the program is juried by a team of esteemed practitioners.

AIA Virginia Prize

Held once a year, students spend the weekend designing a response to a problem created by faculty from one of Virginia's architecture schools. Each school's faculty reviews the submissions and sends up to ten finalists to Richmond for final judging.

Emerging Leaders in Architecture

An Honors Academy of AIA Virginia, the ELA program is designed to develop future leaders in architecture firms, in communities, and in the profession. A signature program, ELA introduces you to the profession's future leaders.

Virginia Women in Design

A knowledge community of AIA Virginia, Virginia Women in Design works closely with established local groups in Virginia to provide programming to enrich and support women in the profession.

ACE Virginia

ACE Virginia is a joint venture of the American Institute of Architects, Associated General Contractors & American Council of Engineering Companies of VA (AIAVA, AGCVA & ACECVA) that offers opportunities to educate and promote best practices of the design and construction industry to our members, owners and developers (both public and private) and the general public. Meetings are held quarterly and, for the convenience of the attendees, the location moves around the state.

Art of Practice

AIA Virginia is convening a diverse cadre of decision-makers, from practices of all sizes, for a one-day forum designed to cultivate strong leaders and advance business practices. Art of Practice will be held in Northern Virginia first quarter of 2019.

Design Forum

Design Forum is a biannual conference founded in 1994 to "foreground important debates about design and the built environment." In the spring of 2020, The Forum will take place in Richmond, Virginia.
